TO OUR SCHOOL

Oh! Jamestown High,
We Seniors of '43,
Pledge forever our thoughts to thee.
We shall ne'er forget the friends we made,
Memories of them shall never fade;
But, we shall continue year by year,
To think of the ones to us so dear.

To our teachers, we wish to say, You've helped us reach our graduation day,
For this generous help we will try to repay,
By thinking of you on our way.
Throughout life's hardships and fears, Through our smiles and through our tears,
Even after we have grown gray with years.

Now that the time has come for us to leave,
No use to cry, no use to grieve.
For life's trials face we must,
We'll try to live both right and just.
With you dear school, we leave our trust;
So our hearts both bold and true,
Will always hold fond memories of you.
